

As a voter I am against any interference with regulations related to XM radio or other similar pay services. The purpose of the FCC is to assure the airwaves are used for the public good. I don't see how catering to a few powerful lobbyists with deep pockets does the public any good or is within the scope of the FCC's purpose.